Canceling a flight with United Airlines doesn't have to be stressful — as long as you know how the refund system works. Whether you canceled your flight voluntarily or United made a schedule change, this guide will show you exactly how to cancel a United flight, check your refund status, and get support if your refund is delayed.

For faster help, you can always call United Airlines refund support at 1-844-723-0591.

Reasons You May Need to Cancel a United Flight

Common situations that lead travelers to cancel flights include:

- Changes in personal plans
- Medical or family emergencies
- United flight delays or cancellations
- Booking errors
- Better deals on alternative flights

Whatever the reason, make sure to follow the right steps to protect your refund eligibility.

How to Cancel a United Flight (Step-by-Step)

Via United Website:

1. Visit <https://www.united.com>
2. Click on “My Trips”
3. Enter your confirmation number and last name
4. Select the trip you want to cancel
5. Click “Cancel Booking” and follow the instructions

Using the Mobile App:

1. Open the United Airlines app
2. Navigate to My Trips
3. Select the flight
4. Tap “Cancel Reservation”

You'll be shown whether you're eligible for a refund or a travel credit before confirming.

United Airlines Refund Policy (2025 Update)

Knowing your rights under United's policy is essential:

Refundable Tickets:

- Can be canceled anytime before departure
- Eligible for full cash refund

Non-Refundable Tickets:

- Usually only eligible for travel credit
- Exceptions apply if United cancels or changes the flight significantly

24-Hour Risk-Free Cancellation:

- Cancel within 24 hours of booking for a full refund, no penalty
